STEWARDSHIP

"My child, remember that you received what was good during your lifetime while Lazarus likewise received what was bad; but now he is comforted here, whereas you are tormented. Moreover, between us and you a great chasm is established..." (Luke 16:25-26)
When God created the world He declared that it was good and He gave it to all mankind for us to enjoy. However, over the years we have created a chasm between those who have great gifts and those who do not. In today's Gospel we see that with our own generosity we must bridge that gap between those who have much and those who have little or we may find ourselves on the wrong side of the chasm in the next life.

Please Pray For:

Judith Lewis, Cathy Chukwuma, Charles & Anne Gelowitz,
Marion Danyliw, Raymond Vermett,
Clarence Capletto, Madeline Daley & Betty Woytuik

Ask Father James:

"Go! In the Peace of Christ" The Mass is ended! Please explain this dismissal form at Mass.

First, we have to understand that the above dismissal form is the translation of the original Latin form, "Ite, Missa est" - Go, The Mass is ended. To which we reply, "Deo Gratias" - meaning "Thanks be to God." This Mass ending form is a commitment to carry out what we profess each Sunday in the creed; that, "We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic church." Meaning, that the church is catholic and apostolic, which means that we are a missionary church and as apostles we are sent out into the missions at the end of each Mass. The New Testament Gospels variously record Christ commissioning the apostles to carry forward his mission to all the world (Matthew 28:16-20; Luke 24:44-49; John 20:19-23).

For instance, in Matthew's gospel, Christ appears to his disciples and instructs them:

All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. As you go, therefore, disciple all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to keep all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, unto the end of the age" (Matthew 28:18-20)

Likewise, at the end of every Mass, we are reminded that all members of the church are to be engaged in the apostolic work of discipleship. The Priest tells the people; "the Mass is ended, go in peace to love and serve the Lord." Don't always be in a hurry to leave the Mass before you hear this mission statement. The final blessing is the sending forth blessing to go into the world.

We are sent back into the world to go do Ministry and missionary work both in and around the church and in the world. We are "sent forth" to go continue to love and serve the Lord, to bring to the world what we received at Mass, namely the teaching of Christ from the Word, and the presence of Christ from the Eucharist. Go! In the Peace of Christ" is a commissioning by Christ to go forth and bring His Love into the world. When the priest gives us the final blessing, this is our commissioning for the coming week from the Holy Spirit. Our response of "Thanks be to God" is expressing our gratitude for "counting us worthy to be sent (apostles) to the world.

All Catholics, after attending Mass, should feel impelled by Christ to give a cup of water to the world's thirsty ones, or to write a cheque for the church to feed the hungry; to go out there to search for a lost friend or relative; visit a nursing home, or resolve to teach a Sunday school class next Sunday, share a meal, tell a child a Bible story, go to choir practice, and feed the hungry, give more offering money to the church to do Christ's work... Remember! You can't be a nominal Christian. You can't carry the name "Christian," and not be committed to being Christ-like. To become a disciple means a decisive and irrevocable action and making oneself sensitive to the needs of others, opening one's eyes and heart to recognizing injustice, suffering, oppression, and the plight of those who have fallen by the wayside...

In the dismissal form, we are told not only to love the Lord but also to "serve the Lord." We serve our God and not ourselves or our own agenda. We go forth to act, serving and protecting the vulnerable and providing for the needs of others. We go forth recognizing that Jesus is present not only in the bread and wine that we have just received but also in "the poor, the sick, and the imprisoned" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1373). We are reminded by these words that to serve the Lord means to serve our neighbour. When we say, "Thanks be to God," we are showing gratitude for the trust that God places in us to be Christ's loving presence in the world.

If you have a faith question, please email Father James at: frjowolagba@gmail.com

AROUND THE ARCHDIOCESE

The Flourishing Congregations

Institute was established at Ambrose University to explore and describe church attenders', leaders', & experts' perspectives on the variables that account for flourishing within Catholic, mainline, and conservative Protestant congregations in Canada. You can be a part of the continued research by participating in the survey. The survey takes about 15-20 minutes to complete. You can stop and return to it if you can't complete it in one sitting. For more information, or if you have questions, please contact Amanda Trainor at the Archdiocese of Regina 306-352-1651 ext. 230 or atrainor@archregina.sk.ca

Catholic Voting How (Not) To

Vote Like a Catholic If I manage to achieve my goal with this piece, I will have left many of my readers unsettled. I will be critiquing two prominent approaches to voting as a Catholic that are oversimplified and misleading. They do, however, have the advantage of being clear and simple. People like clear and simple things. Especially when faced with difficult choices and imperfect options. My goal is to make us uncomfortable with these too simple approaches. And people don't like to be made uncomfortable.
